

The Life Path Review Program

A program for shifting onto a more favorable life path
with Thu-Hien Poma of Adonai

Prerequisite

This is a very sacred program, which has been given energetically under the direction of the Divine Mother to profoundly aid the individual evolutionary paths of those who have reached a certain level of cleared karma over their incarnations. Not everyone is qualified for this work. If you have been directed to read this program then you are fully qualified for this profound work. If you have not been directed to read this program please talk with Master Thu-Hien so that she may check your soul records.

Overview

If your life has been very difficult in certain areas and you have not been able to make much progress no matter how hard you have tried this could mean you are living an old life path that no longer serves you. Divine dispensation is being granted to worthy candidates on the planet who have reached a certain growth point in some of their major life lessons. The Life Path Review program is for removing the heavy burden of the lessons you have already learned but need big assistance getting “unstuck” from in your daily life.

This program works to change your life. It is composed of a series of five deep reunion sessions in partnership with Thu-Hien Poma of Adonai, your physical body, the Earth, your soul, your invisible spiritual support teams, the Karmic review council, and the Divine Mother aspect of the Universe (The Partnership).

Purpose

This program has been designed to help you get into greater alignment with your truest soul path for this incarnation. This process is dedicated to allowing you to participate in a sacred Life Review process with your soul, spiritual support teams, and the Karmic review council while you are still incarnated. This gives you the very unique opportunity to participate on more of a conscious level in correcting your karmic patterns and path up until this point in your life.

Generally, Life Reviews were only granted after death, during a near death experience, while using indigenous sacred plant medicines or during very high level spiritual initiations. Special intervention is now being granted to help humanity clear eons of accumulated karmic suffering and process this past learning easier at a deep cellular level. Until the learning cycles humanity is currently on are complete humanity cannot progress into higher paradigms of living. All is forgiven but all must also be learned.

You can think of this Life Review as seeing and taking the rocks off of the life path behind you so that you can see where your true path really was leading you to all along. As you karmically clean up the path you have already walked a pattern emerges that is new and empowering for you. This path leads you to your highest happiness that is free of old karmic ties that only lead humanity into more suffering.

Now, it is true that each experience you have had up until this point lead you to where you are now. So no time is ever wasted. You have been learning all along. However, some of this learning has been in circles, some has carried unrelenting suffering, and some has been in areas that you really were not interested in but could not find your way out of. The Life Review process helps you see your prior learning path more clearly, helps you clean up your karmic debts that you contracted to clean up in this lifetime, and helps you move into alignment with your true hear-felt goals.

As you undertake this program you will go through many profound inner shifts and external changes. Things that no longer serve your highest good will become less intriguing for you to participate in and things that DO serve you highest good will shine brighter for you as a beacon to whole-heartedly participate in. Your inner-knowing and actions for what is right for you will be greatly strengthen.

The level at which this spiritual intervention process works is not on a conscious level where the ego mind can interfere but on the soul levels where instant awareness and change can start to happen and then be embodied. This is an effortless and invisible process that enlists your soul level help.

With soul level help we stop drifting through life and we become attached to THE meaningful and powerful anchor that serves to guide our way through this Earthly existence. It does not matter how wise, beautiful, spiritually-minded, educated, or creative a person is. Without soul level help there is no divine light to guide a meaningful and direct way. This program will greatly assist you in connecting to your soul level help.

Your main role in this is to actively participate in the new you that begins to unfold. You are asked to have conscious awareness of the inner changes you naturally feel, and are guided to take in the form of big and small new patterns of behavior and actions that naturally emerge in your daily life.

This process also helps you to work through necessary massive changes that are needed in important areas of your life that you are no longer being fulfilled in and need to totally change direction on. Basically, the situations that are no longer or have never served your highest good such as an unhealthy marriage, a job that no longer serves you, partnerships that drain you, enduring chronic health issues and addictions, living in a location that no longer feeds you, financial dependency on someone or something that is out of harmony with your values, lack in any area of your life etc... anything that is out of alignment with your truest path of happiness. When you find yourself deeply stuck in patterns of the-old-you that is making decisions for the you-of-today it is time for an overhaul of karmic patterns and energies.

As humanity as a whole makes great strides in changing the habitual directions of the past to move into a more empowered direction of the future it will take individuals like yourself to be aware of what needs to be changed in your own lives and to have the inner strength to make those changes. This is a global shift in consciousness – yet it takes each person to wake up to the knowledge of their own soul calling and LIVE IT.

By sincerely entering upon this new and exciting chapter of your already sacred journey you have agreed to form a deeper connection with You as you are agreeing to fully open your heart to your divine path and to those souls walking this path with you as you support each other.

THE PROGRAM

A total of five monthly, one-hour, soul reunion sessions are conducted from the privacy of your own home at a time in the evening of your choosing. Before bed is preferable. If you start on July 1, then the following month you will resume your next session on August 1 and so on for the remaining 4 months total. You have a 3-day window available to have your private session should you miss or not have time for the next self-scheduled appointment on the appropriate date.

The sessions are remotely spiritually set-up for you by the higher undistorted guidance of The Partnership. There is very little you will need to do but receive the Divine Mother's grace. If you are sensitive to healing energies as the session begins you will feel the beautiful spiritual energies descend and connect with your physical body. The energies can last up to 2-hours depending on you. So it is wise not to plan anything strenuous afterwards that night because you will want your attentions focused on yourself as much as possible.

Your inner processing will last for 1 month for each session. This means you will be doing a lot of soul work in the background of your life. This is real work for your physical body and there will be times when you are processing more heavily than others. Please give yourself time to rest when you feel tired.

You will not be detoxing the first month but with each additional month you will be clearing out a lot of old patterns energetically on all levels: mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual. As you clear out these old patterns you will be able to come into greater alignment with your true soul's happiness path. You will begin to live more inside of the new healthier paradigms of a more advanced divinely empowered human.

GENERAL STARTING INSTRUCTIONS

It is easy to begin. Simply call on your session by saying, "I am now ready to enter into my Divine Light Path Review process for month (1) with The Partnership." You will either see me or feel me appear. Take my hand and allow me to walk with you into the arms of The Partnership, which will be standing at a spiritual portal ready to greet you. You may or may not feel the energies as they begin. That does not matter. If you fall asleep quickly that is fine too. Do this same process each month changing the number of the month you call in.

Within this elevated group vortex, that The Partnership creates with you the energies are kept strong, safe and supported for your session. If at any time you feel you need extra support during the entire five-month program call on the energies of the Divine Mother and schedule a private session.

Please only call in your session with this program Partnership a maximum of 1 time a month and know when the 5-month program is completed that the program Partnership portal dissolves. You may enter into another 5-month program as often as desired because your work will only clear and balance at the level you are ready for. With each month you become ready for more until you feel you have achieved proper balance in all areas of your life for your highest path of light.

MONTH 1

Part 1

The first month of the process is the most detailed for you as it creates the entire energetic framework for your soul work for the program. It does this by creating a personal energetic vortex that gives you access to The Partnership portal and by creating a spiritually strong and pure link for The Partnership to work with you over the following months.

Part 2

A total assessment of your human choices and soul path to this date will be evaluated for the purpose of knowing what needs to be addressed for the rest of the 4 months. This is done purely on a soul level where ego concerns cannot interfere. Basically, this is equivalent to having a Life Review while still embodied so that you can make real life self-corrections along your current path.

2 weeks into the first month of the process you are asked to actively write out anything that comes to mind in order to set a path of change for your life. This step will be facilitated by the fact that you have already done this in the spiritual realms with The Partnership. So basically, you are being asked to recall what you can remember from the soul work you did in the first half of the month.

This may sound more difficult than it really is. So just relax and write out anything in your life where you need to change tracks. Keep this information in a safe place for the end of your program to review. The things you have recorded here will invisibly guide your way through the program while you are meeting with The Partnership each month. Also, keep this list in your awareness, read it weekly during the 5 month span to serve as a guide for your life.

No examples are given because you cannot do it wrong.

THE FOLLOWING MONTHS

During the following 4 months you will further begin a very unique soul journey that will slowly unfold over time. Keep awareness on how you are feeling and the new things showing up in your life. Journaling and chatting with your support group will assist you.

The following 4 months do not have an outlined agenda. They are totally tailored for your private meetings with The Partnership to allow whatever you need to emerge, heal, shift, and blossom for you. During this time you may need extra healing support as things come up and you may request a private client session with me. Be gentle with yourself and forgiving. You are doing the soul work and that is what matters most!

MONTH 2 – your soul's agenda

MONTH 3 – your soul's agenda

MONTH 4 – your soul's agenda

MONTH 5 – your soul's agenda

Congratulations on taking this divine step. Enjoy the journey!!

In service to the Divine Mother and your inner light,
